

That a summary of the charges against Dr. Croll, together with the penalties imposed, and such additional findings or comments in the decisions of the Hearing Panel the Registrar or the Professional Conduct Committee deem appropriate, be published in the newspaper of the College and appear for three months on the College's website.